

Curas enters new partnership

Curas Ltd is announcing its latest strategic partnership with Penang (Malaysia) based Rehon Industries. The partnership agreement, which was signed and exchanged 19 MAR 2009; will be concerning building new ties with the company in the fields of medical equipment research & development. Curas is using its unique position in the growing European healthcare market to bring new market demands and ideas to selected manufacturing partners in Asia, and the partnership with Rehon Industries is in line with this tradition. Both parties expect to see a realization i.e. product of the project within 24 months.
